

Bio for Evan Fuchs ABR, CRB, CRS, GRI, RENE, SRS

Evan Fuchs has spent three decades serving at the local, state, and national levels while leading a successful real estate firm through every kind of market, giving him firsthand insight into the realities volunteer leaders and practitioners navigate every day.

Evan works alongside associations as a strategic partner, helping leadership teams align, communicate, and execute more effectively on behalf of the people they serve. He brings practical insight, sound judgment, and a strengths-based approach grounded in real-world leadership, not theory.

Outside the boardroom, Evan is a proud husband and girl dad, accomplished concert-goer, and lifelong learner.
